Journal of Business and Management Research (ISSN: 2382-5219)

Call for Paper

Journal of Business and Management Research (JBMR) is a double blind peer-reviewed scholarly journal published biannually by Kathmandu University School of Management (KUSOM), Nepal. The journal’s aim is to foster greater understanding of advancements in all areas of business and management by providing a platform to the scholars for disseminating their research works. JBMR welcomes empirical and theoretical research papers and literature reviews from academicians, practicing managers, and research scholars on issues of current interest in all sub-areas of business and management, especially in the Nepali and South Asian context.

General Information

- JBMR will only publish original research articles and literature reviews presenting business and management issues of current values and relevance. All papers are thoroughly reviewed by an Editorial Board and double blind reviewed by the experts in the field.

- JBMR assumes that manuscript submitted to it is not submitted to any other publications nor it is currently being considered for publication or in process of publication elsewhere. Authors are required to declare that their manuscripts are their own writing and there are no plagiarized texts in any form either from published or unpublished sources.

- JBMR expects highest level of academic honesty from its authors. The manuscript should not contain any illegal, unauthorized, and unethical content. All the ideas, discussions, analyses, conclusions drawn in the manuscript are solely of the authors. It is the authors’ responsibility to ensure the accuracy of facts and information provided in the manuscript. Publisher (Kathmandu University School of Management) and the members of the Editorial Board will not bear any responsibility for any ideas or facts or information presented in the paper.

- By submitting manuscript to the JBMR, the authors fully agree that once manuscript is accepted it becomes the property of KUSOM and no part of it may be reproduced or distributed in any form or by any means, electronic, photocopying or otherwise without prior permission of KUSOM.
• JBMR does not pay the authors when their paper is published. However, when the paper is published, all authors are entitled to getting one copy each free of charge. No fee is charged to the authors for publishing the paper.

Author Guidelines for Manuscript Submission

• The paper should be sent online as a standard attached file in MS Word format. Attached email file should be named with first author’s family name and initials and the date (do not use period or blank space). The date is when the manuscript is emailed and should be in dd/mm/yy format.

• The main body of the paper should be a blinded manuscript (i.e. having no name of the authors anywhere in the article). It should consist of 5000 to 7000 words including abstracts, references, and notes. All papers should also include an abstract not exceeding 200 words. Likewise, all papers should also have 5-6 keywords, placed immediately below the abstract.

• Equations must be written so that it is compatible to Microsoft Word.

• All figures, tables, charts, etc., should be placed in the text.

• Figures and tables must be numbered, and should not be spread over many pages without the consent of the editors.

• Irrespective of what is mentioned above, the editorial board reserves the right to request resubmission of the articles in the format that is readable in the existing software available in KUSOM or with the editors.

• Number of references generally should not exceed 20. However, editorial board may approve the paper that cites more than 20 works.

• Citation and Referencing should follow Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th edition).

Manuscript Submission Format

The manuscripts should be submitted in the below mentioned format:

• Font should be in Times New Roman, font size 12(including titles/heading).
• Text should be aligned left, double spaced, margin one inches at all sides and indent paragraphs (half-inch)
Manuscript of a paper should have a title page. The title page should include: main title of the paper (APA style), subtitle and author’s information: names of the authors, their affiliation, email address of the corresponding author (s) and any relevant footnote. In order to facilitate blind review of the papers, author’s related information footnote should be restricted only to the title page.

Insert page number (flush right) in all pages.

Tables/Figures/Charts if possible should be created in MS Word. All the tables/figures/charts must be numbered and set flush left. On a new line, one should give title for the table/figures/charts. If necessary, provide tables/figures/charts notes right below the table/figures/charts. Numbers related to tables/figures/charts should be in double space but contents within the tables should be single spaced.

Authors are requested to submit their manuscript electronically through email: jbmrbwb@kusom.edu.np.